Visual Arts Curriculum

Grade 6: Unit Three

Painting
Course Description

From a psychological developmental perspective, sixth graders are beginning to think about who they are, where they come from, and where they are going. In the art studio classroom, sixth graders will explore these ideas and use art materials to express their feelings about these very real philosophical thoughts. They will draw, paint, sculpt clay, and make puppets.

Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that all educators in all content areas should seek to develop in their students. They are practices that have been linked to increase college, career, and life success. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

CRP1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee
Career-ready individuals understand the obligations and responsibilities of being a member of a community, and they demonstrate this understanding every day through their interactions with others. They are conscientious of the impacts of their decisions on others and the environment around them. They think about the near-term and long-term consequences of their actions and seek to act in ways that contribute to the betterment of their teams, families, community and workplace. They are reliable and consistent in going beyond the minimum expectation and in participating in activities that serve the greater good.

CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.

CRP3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
Career-ready individuals understand the relationship between personal health, workplace performance and personal well-being; they act on that understanding to regularly practice healthy diet, exercise and mental health activities. Career-ready individuals also take regular action to contribute to their personal financial wellbeing, understanding that personal financial security provides the peace of mind required to contribute more fully to their own career success.
Career Ready Practices

CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.
Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others’ time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.

CRP5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
Career-ready individuals understand the interrelated nature of their actions and regularly make decisions that positively impact and/or mitigate negative impact on other people, organization, and the environment. They are aware of and utilize new technologies, understandings, procedures, materials, and regulations affecting the nature of their work as it relates to the impact on the social condition, the environment and the profitability of the organization.

CRP6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.

CRP7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
Career-ready individuals are discerning in accepting and using new information to make decisions, change practices or inform strategies. They use reliable research process to search for new information. They evaluate the validity of sources when considering the use and adoption of external information or practices in their workplace situation.
Career Ready Practices

CRP8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
Career-ready individuals readily recognize problems in the workplace, understand the nature of the problem, and devise effective plans to solve the problem. They are aware of problems when they occur and take action quickly to address the problem; they thoughtfully investigate the root cause of the problem prior to introducing solutions. They carefully consider the options to solve the problem. Once a solution is agreed upon, they follow through to ensure the problem is solved, whether through their own actions or the actions of others.

CRP9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
Career-ready individuals consistently act in ways that align personal and community-held ideals and principles while employing strategies to positively influence others in the workplace. They have a clear understanding of integrity and act on this understanding in every decision. They use a variety of means to positively impact the directions and actions of a team or organization, and they apply insights into human behavior to change others’ action, attitudes and/or beliefs. They recognize the near-term and long-term effects that management’s actions and attitudes can have on productivity, morals and organizational culture.

New Jersey Core Curriculum Content Standards (NJCCCS):

- 1.3.8.D.2

Content Statement: Themes in art are often communicated through symbolism, allegory, or irony. There are a wide variety of art mediums, each having appropriate tools and processes for the production of artwork. Fluency in these mediums, and the use of the appropriate tools associated with working in these mediums, are components of art-making.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Apply various art media, art mediums, technologies, and processes in the creation of allegorical, theme-based, two- and three-dimensional works of art, using tools and technologies that are appropriate to the theme and goals.

- 1.3.8.D.3

Content Statement: The classification of art into various art genres depends on the formal aspects of visual statements (e.g., physical properties, theoretical components, cultural context). Many genres of art are associated with discipline-specific arts terminology.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Identify genres of art (including realism, abstract/nonobjective art, and conceptual art) within various contexts using appropriate art vocabulary, and solve hands-on visual problems using a variety of genre styles.

- 1.3.8.D.4

Content Statement: Universal themes exist in art across historical eras and cultures. Art may embrace multiple solutions to a problem.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Delineate the thematic content of multicultural artworks, and plan, design, and execute multiple solutions to challenging visual arts problems, expressing similar thematic content.

- 1.4.8.A.1

Content Statement: Contextual clues to artistic intent are embedded in artworks. Analysis of archetypal or consummate works of art requires knowledge and understanding of culturally specific art within historical contexts.
Cumulative Progress Indicator: Generate observational and emotional responses to diverse culturally and historically specific works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art

- 1.4.8. B.2

Content Statement: Visual fluency is the ability to differentiate formal and informal structures and objectively apply observable criteria to the assessment of artworks, without consideration of the artist.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Differentiate among basic formal structures and technical proficiency of artists in works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art.

- 1.4.8. B.3

Content Statement: Universal elements of art and principles of design apply equally to artwork across cultures and historical eras.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Compare and contrast examples of archetypal subject matter in works of art from diverse cultural contexts and historical eras by writing critical essays.

- 1.3.8.D.1

Content Statement: The creation of art is driven by the principles of balance, harmony, unity, emphasis, proportion, and rhythm/movement.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Incorporate various art elements and the principles of balance, harmony, unity, emphasis, proportion, and rhythm/movement in the creation of two- and three-dimensional artworks, using a broad array of art media and art mediums to enhance the expression of creative ideas (e.g., perspective, implied space, illusionary depth, value, and pattern).

- 1.3.8. D.5

Content Statement: Each of the many genres of art is associated with discipline-specific arts terminology and a stylistic approach to art-making.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Examine the characteristics, thematic content, and symbolism found in works of art from diverse cultural and historical eras, and use these visual statements as inspiration for original artworks.
1.2.8.A.3

Content Statement: The arts reflect cultural mores and personal aesthetics throughout the ages.

Cumulative Progress Indicator: Analyze the social, historical, and political impact of artists on culture and the impact of culture on the arts.
Interdisciplinary Connections

Mathematics:
Understand ratio concepts and use ratio reasoning to solve problems.

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.1
Understand the concept of a ratio and use ratio language to describe a ratio relationship between two quantities. For example, "The ratio of wings to beaks in the bird house at the zoo was 2:1, because for every 2 wings there was 1 beak." "For every vote candidate A received, candidate C received nearly three votes."

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.2
Understand the concept of a unit rate \(a/b\) associated with a ratio \(a:b\) with \(b \neq 0\), and use rate language in the context of a ratio relationship. For example, "This recipe has a ratio of 3 cups of flour to 4 cups of sugar, so there is \(3/4\) cup of flour for each cup of sugar." "We paid $75 for 15 hamburgers, which is a rate of $5 per hamburger."

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.3
Use ratio and rate reasoning to solve real-world and mathematical problems, e.g., by reasoning about tables of equivalent ratios, tape diagrams, double number line diagrams, or equations.

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.3.A
Make tables of equivalent ratios relating quantities with whole-number measurements, find missing values in the tables, and plot the pairs of values on the coordinate plane. Use tables to compare ratios.

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.3.B
Solve unit rate problems including those involving unit pricing and constant speed. For example, if it took 7 hours to mow 4 lawns, then at that rate, how many lawns could be mowed in 35 hours? At what rate were lawns being mowed?

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.3.C
Find a percent of a quantity as a rate per 100 (e.g., 30% of a quantity means \(30/100\) times the quantity); solve problems involving finding the whole, given a part and the percent.

CCSS.MATH.CONTENT.6.RP.A.3.D
Use ratio reasoning to convert measurement units; manipulate and transform units appropriately when multiplying or dividing quantities.

WRITING YOUR ARTIST STATEMENT

On a lined sheet of paper, you will write your Artist Statement by following the steps below. Number each task, but just write your answer, and not the question.

For homework, you’ll type it up in paragraph form (omit the numbers) and print it.

1. Take three minutes and think about why you did what you did. Make a list of as many words possible that come to mind. Even if you think it might not fit the category, write it anyway. (Minimum 15 words)

2. Take three more minutes to explain why you chose this topic. (Minimum 3 sentences)

3. Take another three minutes to write down your favorite part about the drawing. Explain why it’s your favorite part. (Minimum 3 sentences)

4. When people see my work, I'd like them to _______________. (Minimum 3 sentences)

5. I think My Community Map Drawing is successful/not successful (choose one) because... (Minimum 3 sentences)

6. What can you do now that you could not do before you experienced this book-making unit? (Minimum 3 sentences)

7. According to your grading rubric for this unit, you were responsible for considering the following categories: design/composition, color choices, personal connection to community and The Giver, drawing skill, content, and creativity. Write at least 5 sentences explaining how you successfully achieved these goals. You need to reference your rubric for this section.

8. How did you consider The Giver in your drawing? Use specific examples from The Giver and your drawing. Choose two things your drawing has in common with The Giver and two ways your drawing contrasts with The Giver. (Minimum 4 sentences

Group Critique Form

Directions: You will get a drawing made by a peer, chosen at random, to professionally critique today.

- Once you have the drawing in front of you, you’ll stand/sit in front of it for 1 minute timed.
- Choose at least one item from each box on the left (check it off) and explain your answer in the box to the right.
