

JROTC

JROTC, Education and Training

JROTC is a leadership program that helps students focus on being a good person, improving their self-discipline, organizational skills, time management skills, physical fitness, and teamwork.

Program Profile

School:	School of Government and Public Administration
Industry Certifications/Credentials Available:	JROTC is NOT a military program even though students/cadets wear military uniforms. However, students that desire to enter the military after four years of successfully completing the JROTC program can receive additional promotions.
Applicable Career Paths:	Public Service/Government, Law Enforcement, Management, Business Administration, Human Resources, National Security, Armed Forces
Career and Technical Student Organization:	Junior Reserves Officers' Training Corps (JROTC)
Advisory Board Members:	District-level administrators, college professors, community leaders, business professionals, parents, alumni members.
Program Highlights:	JROTC students consistently rank higher than other students in their attendance, honor roll status, and graduation rates.

What Students Are Saying

"JROTC changed my life! Without this program, I would have been completely lost. Now I am a strong leader with extremely high confidence to do and become whatever I want in life."

" JROTC is like one big family. We work hard, we play hard, and we look out for each other."

"There is no other program in high school like JROTC. The leadership skills we gain from being in charge of ourselves and our fellow students help us do some amazing things in our school, our communities, and our homes."