PATERSON PUBLIC SCHOOLS' STUDENT MEAL DISTRIBUTION PLAN TO CONTINUE THIS WEEK

Governor's order allows schools to be open on a limited basis for student meal distribution

PATERSON – District officials said today that student meal distribution will continue as scheduled at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow according to the parameters set by New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy in Executive Order No. 107, which he issued yesterday.

The order states that the state commissioner of the Department of Education, in consultation with the commissioner of Department of Health (DOH), “shall be authorized to permit schools to remain open on a limited basis for the provision of food” as well as other essential services.

For the latest updates in the district's student meal distribution efforts while schools are closed, please visit the COVID-19 page on the district's website and click on the “Student Meal Distribution” tab.
